

Leloran Anima

Chapter 1, Act 1

Mikaela and Ceres, the two eldest daughters of the King of Nymph, meeting in a great hall of the palace. They have an imminent and forshadowy conversation before splitting to depart to prepare for their quests. They are quite hostile and sound kind of petty.

Act 2

Laelen and Kendrion meet Symphony in the palace gardens about their commissioned job and are turned away. Laelen and Kendrion come face to face with Princess Kitty, who threatens to jail them if they don't go with her. Kendrion almost chooses the jail cell until Laelen convinces him to go. The journey will begin with an official ceremony in a week

Act 3

Kitty brings her two companions back to the palace, where Symphony confronts them. Her and Kitty have a confrontation, Kitty pulls rank. Symphony refuses to go with her unless she is willing to take the journey seriously. Kitty shows Laelen and Kendrion to their room. Kitty has a momentary breakdown when she is alone.

Act 4

The Commencement ceremony. Dignitaries speak, huge crowd scenes. The crowned candidates descend for the procession out of the Royal city of Barthes. Kendrion wonders what they've gotten into.

Chapter 2, Act 1

Outside of the city, the three sisters meet at the crossroads with their entourages. The Naethos priest blindfolds the three and their groups and allows Ceres, the oldest, the first choice of paths to take. Mikaela is next, and lastly Kitty. When she decides what path to take, her sisters are no longer visible. A small gathering of peasants stand around the crossroads, eager to get a look. On the road, making small talk. Kitty explains why she chose this direction, a bit about religion.

Act 2

Kitty changes into more mundane gear. Meet Selene and Lorack. Fellow travellers. Camp for the night, discussion of revolutionaries. Selene shows Kitty the newsletter.

Act 3

The group + Selene and Lorack reach Leanne. The town has a decorative air, but is quite silent. It is quite queer. Leanne news reporter asks the group some interesting questions. Kendrion becomes quite nervous.

In the Inn. Mikaela is there. Confrontation.

Act 4

Kendrion goes to the kitchen where Selene is telling the Inn staff that she suspects Kitty is part of the monarchy, and they don't seem happy about it. Kendrion suggests they move to a safer location, Mikaela suggests the Naethos temple. In the cover of night, they head there to find the church boarded from the outside. They break their way in, the priest and priestess are there, praying at the altar. Discussion about the events in Leanne with the priest and priestess. "They no longer feel the wind of the Naethen's wings."

Chapter 3, Act 1

Mikaela insists on going forward to the Air Temple, confident in her ability to reach it and complete her task. She is impatient. Laelen also wants to go, because she has become a little competitive with Mikaela and wants to see Kitty beat her. Kendrion is hesitant, worried about potential dangers of the local population being hostile.

Mikaela leaves.

Act 2

In the night, a fire is set in the temple. Everyone has to escape. The priest and priestess lead them deep into the East wood.
